WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, April 25, 1863.

GENERAL ORDERS NO. 105.—The organization of an Invalid Corps is hereby authorized.

This Corps shall consist of Companies, and it shall hereafter be thought best, of Battalions, and if it shall hereafter be thought best, of Regiments.

The Companies shall be made up from the following sources:

First, By taking those officers and enlisted men of commands now in the field (whether actually present or temporarily absent) who from wounds received in action or disease are disabled in the field of duty, and unfit for active service, and are still fit for effective garrison duty, or such other light duties as may be required of an invalid corps.

The Comander-in-Chief shall make out, from information received from their Medical and Commaning Officers, and from their own knowledge, a list of the names of all the officers and enlisted men under their commands who fulfill the following conditions, viz:

1. That they are unfit for active field service on account of wounds received in action or disease.

2. That they are fit for garrison duty; this service being like-wise certified by a Medical Officer, as above, after personal examination.

3. That they are, in the opinion of their Commanding Officers, meritorious and deserving.

These rolls shall be certified by the Examining Surgeon and Regimental Commander, and transmitted to the Provost-Marshal.

The Regimental Commander shall enter in the column of remarks, opposite each officer's name on the roll, a statement to the general character of the officer for intelligence, industry, activity, and merit, and add, if any, intermediate remarks, and include in these the names of his commands, and the number of each, and the names of his officers and enlisted men under his command.

The Regimental Commander shall think an officer and in point of character, to whom the service of the invalid corps would be most suitable, and certify him to the Provost-Marshal, who will forward the name of the officer to the Adjutant-General.

It is in any case the Regimental Commander's duty to make out a certificate to the Provost-Marshal, subject to the same conditions and requirements.

If in any case the Regimental Commander shall think an officer and in point of character, to whom the service of the invalid corps would be most suitable, and certify him to the Adjutant-General.

It is in any case the Regimental Commander's duty to make out a certificate to the Provost-Marshal, subject to the same conditions and requirements.
